PETERS' BURROWES' PRIMER.

Price, 50 cents in Boards.

This may be used in connection with ANY INSTRUCTION BOOK, and should be in the hands of every pupil who desires a thorough knowledge of the elements of Music.

Peters' Burrowes' contains fully three times as much matter as any other Edition of Burrowes' Piano Primer, and no Teacher who has ever compared the two Editions will take any thing but PETERS' BURROWES'.

OVER 800,000 COPIES HAVE BEEN SOLD.

Two Books in One.

PETERS' BURROWES' Thorough-Bass Primer AND COMPANION.

Price, 75 cents, bound in Boards.

BURROWES' THOROUGH-BASS, and PETERS' COMPANION to the same work, have always been standard works with our best Teachers. The immense popularity attained by our Edition of Peters' Burrowes' Primer (see above) caused us to receive constant orders for Peters' Burrowes' and Thorough-Bass long before we thought of publishing it; and, by the advice of Teachers, the present Edition was issued. It combines in one volume Burrowes' Thorough-Bass and his Companion, together with other improvements which can not fail to make it as popular as our Edition of his Primer.

FOR CHURCH AND HOME.

KINKEL'S NEW METHOD

FOR THE

REED ORGAN.

Price, $2.50.

FOR A NEW book this has met with unusual success, and proves that a first-class work need never fear competition with others of its class.

Kinkel's New Method contains the Elements of Music, together with a clear and concise course of instruction. It carries the pupil from the beginning to the end of the work through a series of judicious examples that can not fail to interest him in the study of this delightful instrument.

As a Class-Book, the Profession pronounce "Kinkel's New Method" the most perfect work of its class. As a book of amusement, its collection of valuable music will always recommend it to the Amateur.

WORRALL'S GUITAR SCHOOL.

Price, $1.50, in Boards.

Full directions are given for Tuning and Stringing the Guitar; also rules for the proper mode of holding the instrument, the manner of Touching the Strings, Playing the Chords, Arpeggio, Double Notes, Harmonics, etc.

The fingerings of the various positions are given in a series of inductive lessons, which, if attentively studied, can not fail to advance the Pupil, and give him the mastery over this most delightful instrument.

In addition to a large number of the most popular melodies of the day, the work contains Exercises for the Voice, and a large collection of beautiful Songs and Duets.

It is admirably suited to the wants of Amateurs and scholars desirous of making rapid progress. It is also recommended to Teachers as being the best and the Cheapest Method extant.

It contains 96 pages of matter, printed on good paper, and bound in a strong and substantial manner.

THE BEST WORK FOR BEGINNERS.

Peters' Eclectic Piano Instructor.

COMPOSED AND COMPILED FROM STANDARD AUTHORS,

BY

WILLIAM CUMMING PETERS.

Price, $3.25 in Boards; $4 in Cloth, with Gilt Stamping.

Sent by mail, postage paid, on receipt of the marked price.

The best proof of the superiority of PETERS' ECLECTIC PIANO INSTRUCTOR over all other works lies in its great popularity, over 500,000 pupils having mastered the Piano from its use.

Teachers pronounce it the EASIEST and most progressive method extant, SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.

PUPILS always prefer it on account of the MELODIOUS character of its exercises. It has no dry studies.

PARENTS prefer it, because their children learn to play quicker from its pages than from any other work.

EVERY BODY likes it, because it is Thoroughly Practical, Progressive, and Melodious, containing, as it does, the most Simple, Thorough, and Progressive Exercises, Recreations, and Pleasant Examples.

Possessing all the elements of popularity, it is no wonder that Peters' Eclectic IS SUPERSEDING ALL OTHER METHODS as an INSTRUCTION-BOOK for beginners, and the enormous sale of 300,000 copies warrants us in recommending it to all those who are desirous of making rapid progress in the art of Piano-playing.
